CMS Energy
One Energy Plaza
Jackson, MI 49201

David G. Mengebier
Senior Vice President, Governmental and Public Affairs and Chief Compliance Officer

David G. Mengebier is senior vice president of governmental and public affairs and chief compliance officer for CMS Energy and its subsidiaries.

Mengebier is responsible for managing all of CMS Energy's corporate and community-based government relations, public affairs and economic development activities in Michigan and in other states where CMS Energy has investments. As chief compliance officer, he has oversight of regulatory, Code of Conduct and corporate policy compliance. Mengebier also is president of the CMS Energy and Consumers Energy charitable foundations and CMS Land. From 1999 to 2001, he was vice president of governmental and international affairs. Before that, he was executive director of federal governmental affairs from 1995 to 1999. From 1991 to 1995, he was director of federal governmental affairs.

Before joining CMS Energy, he worked as legislative counsel for Handgun Control, Inc., led by James and Sarah Brady, since 1989. From 1986 to 1989 Mengebier served as associate staff on the Committee on Appropriations of the U.S. House of Representatives and as legislative director to U.S. Rep. Carl Pursell, R-Mich. He worked as a legislative analyst for the U.S. House of Representatives Republican Conference in Washington from 1985 to 1986.

Mengebier earned a Bachelor of Arts degree from Michigan State University in 1981 and a law degree from Thomas M. Cooley Law School in Lansing, Mich., in 1984. He earned a master's degree in business administration at the University of Michigan in 2006.

He serves on the boards of directors of the Michigan Economic Development Corp., the United Way of Jackson County, Catholic Social Services of Washtenaw County and Keystone Energy. Mengebier also serves on the board of trustees at Siena Heights Universtiy. He is a member of the Washington, D.C., Bar Association.

David G. Mengebier